

WALDORF THIEF GETS TERM OF SEVEN YEARS

Nolan Turns Out to Be English Criminal with a Long Record.

Dan Nolan, a notorious English crook, who has served terms in nearly all the English prisons, was today sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for seven years and six months by Recorder Goff.

Nolan arrived in this country three months ago, fresh from a year's sentence in Bow street prison. He won some money playing cards on the steamship coming over and put up at the Waldorf, where on Jan. 20 he got into the rooms of two other guests and stole jewelry valued at nearly $1,000. He was not suspected and shortly afterward left the hotel.

Detective Sullivan, of Inspector McLaughlin's staff, picked up Nolan on upper Broadway on suspicion and found him wearing a watch chain, part of the booty stolen from the Waldorf rooms. Nolan denied ever having been in prison, but when his Berlin measurements and thumb marks were sent to Scotland Yard his identity was established.

When arraigned before Recorder Goff Nolan refused to tell what he had done with his booty. "You wouldn't want me to tell, would you?" he said to Assistant District Attorney Garvan. "I gave it to a lady." Most of the jewelry which belonged to Mrs. Elsie A. McClurg and Mrs. Anna Huske Cotton, was subsequently recovered in an uptown pawnshop. The record of Nolan furnished by Scotland Yard shows that he served six years in Dartmoor, three months in Pentonville and one year in Bow street.

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF ST. BRIGID'S SCHOOL.

On Sunday the parochial school of St. Brigid's Church, on Eighth avenue, near Avenue B, will have completed fifty years of its existence. It is estimated that during these fifty years no less than 40,000 children have passed through the school, with an average course of six years.

The celebration of the golden jubilee of the school will be held on Sunday with a solemn high mass in St. Brigid's Church, Tompkins Square. On Wednesday, in the Lexington Avenue Opera House, a civic celebration will be held, and it is intended to make the affair the occasion of a grand reunion of the former students of the school and of former and present parishioners. The famous St. Brigid's Minstrels, consisting of members of the alumni and thirty boys of the school, will give an up-to-date minstrel show.

NOW YOU'LL SEE NO MORE LOPSIDED CHILDREN

Supt. Maxwell Gives Out an Order Requiring
Them to Carry Books with the Weight Evenly Distributed.

No longer may the festive school child gambol with free and untrammelled soul on his way to and from school.

Never again may he enjoy the unfettered delight of whirling his fellow with a bundle of printed facts attached to the end of a strap.

Even the unholy joy of totting his library pack fashion is to be denied him.

It is all on account of his young and sensitive physique. Like the delicate orchid he is to be henceforth nourished and attended. It is all that he may not grow lopsided. Only Mahomet and the wise men know the ominous results attending the freighting of one's books too long on one shoulder. Our nation is to be saved such horrors under an order just issued.

It is short, sweet and pithy. "One of the most important that I have ever issued," said Superintendent of Schools Maxwell today when queried on the subject.

The mysteries of the diamond hitch might well be applied to the school child. Henceforth he is to wear his reading matter with a view solely to his avoirdupois. The dignity of philosophy is to be balanced with apparent second readers and fulsome botany. In other words, the youth of the land must henceforth apportion their loads with perfect parity and balance. If the algebra weighs light it must be flung into the society of the heavier if more effervescent English literature. No one realizes the deadly effects of two geographies. There is a tale of one child who had to use a crutch after three months portaging of his text-books to and fro. This is believed to be a myth circulated for evil effect.

The order is aimed at the various local superintendents, principals and teachers of all the schools of Greater Manhattan.

The order declares that all children shall carry their books under the right arm on the even days of the month and under the left arm on the odd days. They will be allowed to carry them in evenly divided weights as before mentioned.

The result is being awaited with interest.

Here is the regulation that is expected to reform the vertebrae of Young New York:

Pupils should be required to carry their books on the right side on the even days of the month and on the left side on the odd days. This applies to the carrying home of books. This is done to avoid one cause of spinal curvature. The number of the books should be reduced to a minimum.

The spectacle of meeting thousands of solemn featured children, all intent on the carrying of their books precisely upon the proper side will henceforth enliven the humor of the bored citizen. He will not grow weary for the interest will be diversified by the children carrying their volumes upon the left side upon the odd days of the month. Thus their minds will be enlarged and broadened by the responsibility of their new duties.

A Material Difference.

MUSHROOMS are delightfully palatable and healthful, yet some species of Toadstools so closely resemble the toothsome Mushroom as to make it dangerous to experiment with uncertainties. And so it is with Castoria and its imitations. Keep the Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher ever in your mind's eye as the Mushroom. Be as particular to remember the counterfeits, substitutes and "just as good" kind as the Toadstools. There may be a resemblance in the package, but the results obtained are so widely different as to make the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher the important feature when buying Castoria.

Why should not our preparation be superior to all other children's remedies? Have not eminent physicians from the Atlantic to the Pacific testified to its perfection? Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the acme of chemical art as applied to a child's medicine.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
